

Clearing the View . . .

During the last three weeks of my sabbatical, we were able to spend time in the Adirondacks at our family cottage. There were cookouts and celebrations, time on the beach, reading, kayaking, as well as a fairly substantial “to-do” list to tackle. Among the many tasks was the regular effort to “clear the view.”

When the cottage was built over 100 years ago, most of what is now forest was farmland and pasture. But it doesn’t take long for the trees to return and for the view of the lake to be crowded out, if not completely obliterated. Over the years, the family has worked to keep a swath of open land from the cottage to the water, through which the lake can be seen. But each year the trees move in. To keep new trees from heading skyward, the open area has to be mowed annually. Where the trees on the sides reach out into the open sunlight, they need to be cut back or cut down to keep some semblance of a view.

In so many ways, it was the perfect metaphor for my sabbatical time. The last three months have been a wonderful gift from you all and from the Lilly Foundation grant – and an amazing time to clear my desk, clear my mind, and “clear the view” spiritually. There was time for study, for retreats, for reading and reflection, as well as solid time with friends and family. What a gift it was!

Yet sitting at my desk here in my first few days back, my question is this. Was it just a break – a temporary pause to refresh before diving back in to life and church and all that entails? Or is there a new way to view life and ministry here together?

First and foremost, I return even more grateful for this church and the privilege of being here among you all. In addition to reading and study and reflection, we were able to visit several other churches for Sunday worship. It made me even more glad for all that we have – an amazing gathering of interesting and talented people wrestling with what it means to be faithful; a devoted staff team that I am privileged to serve with; a gorgeous building that inspires a sense of God’s presence; and worship that is done very, very well.

And yet so quickly our lives can fill to the brim and beyond. Life and work and play and family and volunteering – all good things – can so quickly fill up “the view” and our ability to pause, breathe, and simply enjoy life and the presence of God’s goodness throughout our lives.

As at the lake, clearing the view is an ongoing task. And I, for one, need to continue to simply stop. To take a “Sabbath” amid a busy week. To make time for the practices of my sabbatical – reading, exercise, intentional time with others, centering prayer (a form of meditation), and quiet.

As a church, this month we will begin two similar “practices” that I hope will help to “clear our view” and deepen our connection to God amid busy lives. Once a month, starting on Saturday, October 20, the Saturday service will be a “contemplative” service. Similar in length, though differing in format, this service will incorporate music, quiet centering prayer, and the ancient practice of lectio divina, where instead of a sermon, together we will listen for the voice of God speaking to us through scripture. (For e-version – Click here to learn more about Centering Prayer, and here to learn about lectio divina.)

In addition, this month we will kick off our “Show up & Make” event. Another fruit of our Imagine Initiative, following all three services on the weekend of October 27 and 28 this event will offer the chance to reflect on the themes of worship using art. No artistic skill is necessary, but all ages are invited to be a part of engaging not simply our minds in our spiritual lives, but our full selves – body, mind, and spirit. Come, show up, & make!

In an age where “mindfulness” is all the rage, these two events blend mindfulness with a Christian spiritual focus – anchoring us deep to the loving presence of God in our daily lives.

It is good to be back among you, and I look forward to sharing more with you about the learnings of my sabbatical, and joining you as together we find ways to “clear the view.”

In faith,

Imagine, Peace & Global Witness Offering

Imagine . . . Becoming Reality

As the Imagine Initiative nears the end of its third and final year... imagination continues to become reality:

- An additional “Rise Against Hunger” event is on for October 14.
- Refurbishment of the sanctuary windows continued with several windows re-installed in pristine condition.
- The chapel renovation project enabled the use of our space by Community Synagogue for the last year and a half, and by Chavurat Tikvah for their High Holy Days.
- Year 3 of the Saturday 5:00 p.m. worship service has begun!
- Show Up and Make! – a new program combining faith and art - makes its debut this month.
- The second August mission trip to NOLA was a great success!
- The new concert series continues this month on October 14.
- The substantial office and attic storage construction project is finished – well worth a look around all the changes to staff work areas and the third floor!
- The housing task force has been busy re-evaluating our best options for the use of Imagine funding for housing for our third pastor...stay tuned.

Thank you for your continued generosity toward fulfilling all God imagines!

Each year during the “Season of Peace,” which runs through September and ends on World Communion Sunday, which this year is Sunday, October 7, Presbyterians around the world contribute to our “Peace and Global Witness” offering.

This offering exists to support our call to witness and work for peace, from our own local communities, to the far reaches around the world. It seeks to alleviate and end suffering and violence in all settings.

50% of this offering is utilized by the Presbyterian Mission Agency to advocate for peace and justice in cultures of violence, through collaborative projects of education and Christian witness. One example of this is supporting peace efforts in South Sudan and to help Sudanese people in refugee camps across the border in Uganda.

25% of this offering supports regional Presbyterian mid councils, and 25% stays with our church to build up peace in our community in ways we see fit. Examples of local assistance include funding scholarships for students recognized as peacemakers, resettlement of refugees and supporting shelters where those who are abused may find refuge.

We hope that you will join us in our

Peace and Global Witness offering to help promote our witness and work for peace, both here in our local community, and throughout the world.

We will have offering envelopes in the Sanctuary pews. We will be accepting this offering until Sunday, October 7.

Thank you in advance for your generosity.

You are invited to visit the Peace & Global Witness website:

(www.presbyterianmission.org/peace-global)

to find out more information on how your support of this offering helps. May there be generosity in our hearts to join with Christians all over the country on World Communion Sunday, October 7, in response to the Peace & Global Witness Offering.

Go from mind to hand and heart as we mix art media with ideas stirred by the message and music of worship. Thematic art and craft experiences will aim to extend worship beyond the pews and enhance faith beyond the workings of our intellect. Quarterly projects introduce new ways of relating to God for people of all ages during different seasons of the church year. Each session will be facilitated by church members, staff, or local artists who set the stage for participants to swing by, or sit down, relax, and play. No art experience necessary! You are invited to join us for this new quarterly happening.

Become Part of Our Church Family

Perhaps you've been coming to RPC a long time, or perhaps you are brand new to the area or the church. Either way, if you've thought about taking a further step into the life and ministry of RPC, this is a great time to explore it. All those who are interested in finding out more about what it means to be a member of the Rye Presbyterian Church are invited to take part in the New Member classes. The classes are Sundays, October 14 and 21, immediately following worship in the church library. Childcare will be available. In the classes, we will explore what it means to be a Presbyterian in general, and what it means to actively live out our faith together as a part of this particular church. In addition to the Sunday classes, for those choosing to join the church, there will be a dessert meeting with the leadership of the church on Sunday evening, November 4, at 7:00 p.m. This is a time to meet the officers of the church and for the Session to meet briefly to approve the new class for church membership. Public welcome and recognition of the new members will take place during 10:00 a.m. worship on Sunday, November 11.

Anyone wishing to find out more about joining the church should contact Peggy in the church office—

Caring Connections

Caring Connections is successfully underway. Twenty-one participants embarked on a 10-week journey in fellowship with one another and in preparation to provide support for those in need.

At the opening retreat, the Stephen Ministry based curriculum introduced trainees to the Caregiver's Compass, a symbol utilized to chart one's path throughout the training and to remind caregivers of the four important characteristics of spiritual care.

Here are some of the descriptions compiled by this year's class when brainstorming the meaning of each compass point:

- Compassionate: empathy-in-action, selfless, present, non-judgmental, appreciative, gentle strength, natural and/or learned
- Full of Faith: open to God, originating in love, trusts higher power, full vessel, confident in God's capacity, spiritual, able to avoid "cringe-worthy" words or clichés, believes God is the cure-giver
- Skilled: honed, flexible, fine-tuned, trained, practiced, active listener, maintains boundaries, shared goals, willing to ask for help, familiar with theology, comfortable with the unknown
- Trustworthy: shows up, maintains confidences, consistent, reliable, considers another valuable, steady, available, safe, prioritizes another's need

The Caregiver's Compass is a symbol reminding us that high-quality, confidential, one-to-one Christ-centered care is available at Rye Presbyterian Church. Please contact the clergy if you or someone you know might benefit from meeting with a compassionate, full of faith, skilled, trustworthy caregiver.

Christian Education, Confirmation, Connection Pool Party

Sunday School

Our 2018-2019 Sunday School program got off to an amazing start this year! We continue this month with the Season of Pentecost, during which we, with the community of Mark's gospel, will discover that the way for disciples of Christ is anything but ordinary. We are called to be bridges not barriers; to contemplate the tough questions, address those things that get in the way of faithful living; and to embrace the way of inclusion, love, and just living. Below are the themes and texts for each week. We invite families to engage these stories together at home!

- Oct 7: Mark 10:2-16
(Tough Questions)
- Oct 14: Mark 10:17-31
(Finding Our Way)
- Oct 21: Mark 10:35-45 (A New Way)
- Oct 28: Mark 10:46-52
(The Way of Exclusion)

Sunday School Teaching Volunteers

We invite you to join in on our work of walking alongside children on their journey of faith as a Teaching Volunteer! Teaching is done in teams, providing a support system among fellow volunteers and a rotating schedule. You are invited to teach regularly (one-to-two times a month) or serve as a substitute (when needed). All lessons are prepared for you so volunteers can reflect on the lessons ahead of time and focus solely on engaging children during Sunday mornings. We hope you decide to share your gifts with the children of our community!

If interested in being a part of this work, please contact Jean-Paul Marshall: jmarshall@ryepc.com.

Middle School Connection

Wednesdays, October 3 & 17, 5:30-6:45 p.m., Youth Rooms

Connection, our middle school youth group is open to all 6th-8th graders. We'll meet on October 3 and 17 this month from 5:30-6:45 p.m. for a pizza dinner, games, learning, and fun. Gather in the youth rooms downstairs under the Assembly Room. Hope to see your middle schooler there! Please let Dan-Love (dlove@ryepc.com) know if you'd like to be on the email reminder list.

The Christian Education Newsletter

It has been found that parents are the primary influence on their children's journey of faith. That means our children first begin to understand the love of God and the Christian faith through the love and care of their parents and through the faith practices observed at home.

We seek to help parents with faith development at home by providing a variety of ways for families to engage scripture, ask questions, and grow closer to God together. It is our hope that this weekly newsletter helps families experience God at work in their everyday lives.

The first newsletter will be sent out Monday, Oct. 8. If interested in receiving this newsletter, please contact Jean-Paul Marshall (jmarshall@ryepc.com).

High School Youth Group

All 9th—12th graders are welcome at RPC's High School Youth Group! Put down Sundays, October 14 & 21, in your calendars! We will have decided what we are doing for these dates at our September gathering. Keep an eye out for information soon.

Confirmation 2019

A new confirmation class of ninth graders is underway! The entire class met late last month to get to kick the year off and get to know each other a little better. We will jump right in with classes in the late afternoon on Sundays, October 14 and 28. Soon they will be wrestling with the deeper questions of the Christian faith: Who IS God? What is that Bible really all about? How can this world be both so beautiful and so broken? Where do I fit in the larger story of what God is up to? Please keep this year's class in your prayers throughout the coming months!

New Emergency & Security Procedures Training, RPC Fall Festival

New Emergency and Security Procedures Training

In light of events in the past year or so, your Worship and Music Committee, in concert with the Christian Education Committee, has developed new emergency and security procedures which have been reviewed and approved by the Trustees and Session.

We would like as many of our members to be aware of, and well versed in, these new procedures as possible, especially, but not limited to, anyone who ushers, our Sunday School teachers, church leaders and officers, and anyone else who wants to be informed.

To that end, we are offering three 30-minute orientation sessions at which these new procedures will be introduced and reviewed. You only need to attend one of the three.

The sessions will be offered on:

- Sunday, October 14 at 9:15 a.m. in the Westminster Room (following 8:30 a.m. worship and prior to 10:00 a.m. worship)
- Sunday, October 14 at 11:15 a.m. in the Westminster Room (following 10:00 a.m. worship – you can still volunteer for the later shift at Rise Against Hunger that day)
- Wednesday, October 17, at 7:00 p.m. in the Westminster Room (prior to the Deacons and Trustees meetings)

We hope you will make an effort to join us for one of these three sessions and to help make our church a safe and hospitable place for all.

If you have any questions, please contact John Miller at the church office, or via email at jmiller@ryepc.com.

Music Notes, Organ & Orchestra Concert

From Jason Charneski

Introducing Eddie Zheng, Our First Knock Intern in Sacred Music

We will welcome Eddie Zheng, our first Knock Intern in Sacred Music, into our midst on October 7. Eddie is a freshman at the Juilliard School, where he studies organ with Paul Jacobs. He was a student of Matthew Lewis for two years in Juilliard Pre-College Division. He also was a student at the McGill Organ Academy and the Oregon Bach Festival Organ Institute in the summer of 2017. He won first prize at the 17th annual West Chester University (Penn.) organ competition and has performed in three major concert halls in Beijing. He came to the organ in 2015 following ten years of piano studies. Eddie's hobbies include filmmaking, hip-hop music, and playing ice hockey.

The goal of this internship in sacred music, funded this year by the Peter B. Knock Memorial Fund, is to provide a hands-on educational experience to a college or university student whose courses include the many aspects of liturgical music. You will see and hear Eddie do quite a bit of it all, including playing the organ, conducting the Chancel Choir, preparing music for rehearsals, and accompanying the Children's and the Youth Choirs – all with guidance and encouragement from me, Lisa, and the pastors.

Chancel Flowers

Each week beautiful flowers adorn our sanctuary and chapel, and provide an uplifting reminder of the goodness of God. Please consider honoring the memory of a loved one or recognizing a special occasion by donating $60 for the chancel flowers. Your donation will be noted in the church bulletin. To make arrangements, please contact Denise LeVan (dlevan@ryepc.com).

Our morning and afternoon sessions have the same goals and activities at each of their respective age levels. We look forward to hearing from you soon!

On the first day of school for the 2018-2019 school year, we had a welcome party for all of our families. Families enjoyed ice pops and cookies under the grape arbor and a live children's music concert from Songs for Seeds on the playground.
